

As a flight attendant I am totally against permitting passengers to use cell phones during flight. Some cell phone users are inconsiderate and speak as if everyone is interested in their conversation. I can see the situation getting out of hand which could interfere with the flight attendant performing her duties.